

Southern Nevada Bouldering Areas Overview

Area	Problems	V0-V2	V3-V5	V6-V8	V9-V12	V13-V17	Approach	Cell Service	Season	Notes	Page
SR160 Areas	103	48	34	12	0	0				Lots of new V0 to V4s with good rock and a relatively short approach.	25
Windy Canyon	164	101	43	15	5	0				A classic spot for great moderates on solid rock in a pretty, relatively quiet setting.	39
Mud Springs Canyon	98	54	21	16	6	1				An aficionado area dotted with high-quality destination problems.	61
Black Velvet Canyon	173	79	40	28	19	7				Arguably the best area for compact clusters of problems V9 and harder.	75
Mustang Canyon	96	48	36	12	4	0				A wild-feeling zone with a fair few good moderates and a couple great V10s.	97
First Creek Canyon	167	67	45	37	13	5				A major destination area with some outstanding rock quality and a requisite long approach.	111
Oak Creek Canyon	197	85	63	33	15	1				One of the best areas outside of Kraft for problems in the V3 to V8 range.	143
Juniper Canyon	37	7	13	11	6	0				A longer approach but superb rock and a good handful of great problems.	169
Pine Creek Canyon	106	33	41	19	11	1				A few clusters of good boulders, each worthy in their own ways.	177
Ice Box Canyon	79	29	23	21	5	1				A shorter approach to a few destination problems.	193
Willow Springs	201	83	55	35	23	2				One of the major areas of Red Rocks with shorter approaches and a wide range of options.	203
White Rock Springs	96	56	29	11	1	0				A relatively obscure collection of generally good problems.	229
Sandstone Quarry	53	29	19	5	0	0				A pretty setting but generally sandy rock and a modest amount of problems.	243
1st and 2nd Pullouts	98	49	29	15	5	0				Generally shorter approaches and a few standouts but the rock quality is generally mediocre.	253
Red Spring	110	56	31	15	8	0				A great spot when time is limited but can be too popular for some.	267
Calico Basin	156	71	49	24	11	1				Easier access and a big landscape of unique problems with less traffic than Kraft.	281
Kraft Boulders	464	234	118	73	30	0				The most popular, iconic, Red Rocks bouldering area. Hard to beat for concentration of good problems.	303
Gateway Canyon	324	118	92	69	41	4				One of the best spots for steeper problems in Red Rocks. A must-visit for most travelers.	345
La Madre Foothills	42	19	18	3	0	0				A scrappy collection of locals-type areas and problems.	387
Mount Charleston	169	56	36	38	37	2				A worthy area, especially for locals and steep limestone fans.	393
East Side Areas	109	55	38	12	4	0				A decent volcanic area with a good selection of OK problems.	415
Keyhole Canyon	123	73	36	13	1	0				One of the better options when Red Rocks is wet. The Hillside Boulders are a great new addition.	427
Arizona Hot Springs	12	4	5	3	0	0				A neat area to combine a dip in the Hot springs with some bouldering on volcanic rock.	448

Red Rocks